- 1.01 Title.
- 1.02 Purposes.
- 1.03 County Status, Powers and Duties.
- 1.04 Effect on State Law.
- 1.05 Effect on Local Laws and Enactments.
- 1.06 Definitions.
- 1.07 County Seal.
- 1.08 County Flag.

Section 1.01. Title. This Charter, and all amendments hereto, shall constitute the form of government for the County of Dutchess and shall be known and cited as the "Dutchess County Charter."

Section 1.02. Purposes. Among the purposes of this Charter are the securing of maximum county home rule, the separation of legislative and executive functions and the establishment of an efficient and responsible county government.

Section 1.03. County Status, Powers and Duties.
The County of Dutchess shall continue to be a municipal corporation and shall have all the powers and perform all the duties now or hereafter conferred or imposed upon it by this Charter or applicable law, together with all rights, privileges, functions and powers necessarily implied or incidental thereto.

Section 1.04. Effect on State Law. Any State law which is inconsistent with this Charter shall be superseded by this Charter to the extent inconsistent and within the limits prescribed by law.

Section 1.05. Effect on Local Laws and Enactments.
All existing laws, ordinances, legalizing acts and resolutions of the County shall remain operative except where inconsistent with this Charter.

Section 1.06. Definitions. Whenever used in this Charter or the Administrative Code, local laws, ordinances, legalizing acts or resolutions, unless otherwise expressly stated or required by subject matter or context:

(a) "Administrative Code" shall mean the administrative code adopted by and for the County of Dutchess and all amendments thereto;

(b) "board", except as otherwise provided herein, shall mean a body of persons appointed in the manner herein provided for the purpose of studying and advising on matters of continuing County interest;

(c) "Charter" shall mean this Charter and all amendments hereto;

(d) "commission" shall mean a body of persons appointed in the manner herein provided for the purpose of investigating, studying, reporting, drafting and advising on matters of County interest;

(e) "committee" shall mean a body of persons appointed in the manner herein provided for the purpose of investigating, studying or reporting on matters of transitory County interest;

(f) "County" shall mean the County of Dutchess;

(g) "department" shall mean each of those units of the executive branch set forth in Articles IV through XIX herein;

(h) "deputy" shall mean a County Officer authorized by his principal to exercise delegated discretionary powers and duties and to act generally in the place and stead of his principal;

(i) "division" shall mean a part of a department or office of an appointed or elected officer;

(j) "executive branch" shall mean the County Executive and all units of government within his jurisdiction;

(k) "judiciary" shall mean judges;

(l) "legalizing act" shall mean a legislative act, not subject to referendum, which legalizes and validates any act had and taken in connection with a lawful municipal object or purpose by the governing board or other local body, officer or agency of a municipality wholly within the County, in the manner and under the conditions prescribed in the County Law, as amended, or other applicable law;

(m) "legislative branch" shall mean the County Legislature and all units of government within its jurisdiction;

(n) "local law" shall mean a law adopted pursuant to this Charter within the power granted by the Constitution of the State of New York, an act of the State Legislature or a provision of this Charter, but shall not include ordinances, legalizing acts or resolutions;

(o) "officer" shall mean a person in the County government who has authority to exercise some portion of the sovereign power, either in making, executing or administering the laws;

(p) "ordinance" shall mean a legislative act, not subject to referendum, adopted pursuant to this Charter and relating to property or any other subject of County concern not required to be enacted by local law, legalizing act or resolution;

(q) "qualified elector" shall mean a person qualified to cast a ballot in a County election;

(r) "quorum" shall mean a majority of the total number;

(s) "resolution" shall mean a legislative act other than a local law, ordinance or legalizing act, adopted pursuant to this Charter, but not subject to referendum;

(t) "total number" shall mean the number of a duly constituted body if there were no vacancies and no persons disqualified from acting;

(u) "unit" shall mean any department, division or functionally identifiable part of County government.

Section 1.07. County Seal. The official seal of the County of Dutchess shall be in the form of a circle, the lower two-sevenths of which shall depict a furrowed field and the upper five-sevenths sky. In the center of the seal shall appear a sheaf of wheat standing upon the ground and extending almost to the edge of the sky, with stalks extending upward and curving outward and downward. To the right of the sheaf shall be two tall stalks of corn with drooping leaves. Directly in front of the sheaf and resting upon the ground shall be a plow occupying six-sevenths of the horizontal diameter of the circle. Surrounding the circle shall be a rope design; surrounding it, the words "DUTCHESS COUNTY SEAL" in bold upper-case lettering so set that "DUTCHESS COUNTY" extends from the left side across the top to the right side, and "SEAL" appears at the bottom with three five-pointed stars separating the words "DUTCHESS" and "SEAL" on the lower left side and three five-pointed stars separating the words "COUNTY" and "SEAL" on the lower right side. All words shall be in the upright reading position. Surrounding the words and stars shall appear a scroll design, surrounded, in turn, by a solid line. When depicted in color, the background shall be in gold, the printing in royal blue; the ground in gold, yellow and brown; the plow in brown; the corn-stalks and wheat in yellow; the sky in clear light blue; and the shading in royal blue.

Section 1.08. County Flag. The flag of the County of Dutchess shall be composed of three horizontal bars of equal size, the upper bright orange, the middle white and the bottom royal blue, with the seal of the County of Dutchess in the center of the white bar occupying approximately four-fifths of its height. The height of the flag shall be approximately two-thirds of its width.

Section 2.01. County Legislature; Membership; Election; Term; Reapportionment.

There shall be a County Legislature composed of Legislators elected from single member districts prescribed in such local laws of reapportionment as may from time to time to be applicable. Each Legislator shall be deemed a County Officer and shall be elected at a general odd-numbered year election for a term of two years. At the time of his/her nomination and election, and throughout his/her term of office, each Legislator shall be and remain an elector of the district from which he/she is elected. Hereafter, the County Legislature, by a Local Law subject to permissive referendum, shall reapportion its membership within two years after the publication of each federal decennial census in a manner consistent with constitutionally and legally accepted principles of legislative representation, but in no event shall the number of Legislators exceed twenty-five (25). Notwithstanding any other provision of this Charter to the contrary, such local law of reapportionment shall not be subject to disapproval by the County Executive.

Section 2.02. Powers and Duties. The County Legislature shall be the legislative, appropriating and policy determining body of the County. Except as may otherwise be provided herein, it shall have and exercise all the legislative powers and duties now or hereafter conferred or imposed by State law or this Charter upon a board of supervisors or a legislative body of a county, and all powers and duties necessarily implied or incidental thereto.

Among such powers and duties, but not by way of limitation, it shall:

- (a) make appropriations, levy taxes, incur indebtedness and adopt the County budget;
- (b) enact, amend or rescind local laws, ordinances, legalizing acts or resolutions, subject to approval of the County Executive as provided in section 3.02 (i) of this Charter;
- (c) adopt, amend or repeal, by local law, an Administrative Code which shall set forth the details of administration of the County government consistent with the provisions of the Charter;
- (d) adopt by resolution all necessary rules and regulations for its own conduct and procedure;
- (e) establish or abolish positions of employment and titles thereof, as provided by law;
- (f) establish by local law one or more offices of deputy to the head of any unit of County government;
- (g) fix by resolution the compensation of all County Officers and employees except members of the Judiciary;

(h) fix by resolution the compensation to be paid from County funds to officers or employees who are not officers or employees of the County;

(i) grant by resolution to its officers and employees vacations, sick leaves, compensatory time and leaves of absence, with or without pay, and adopt rules and regulations in relation thereto;

(j) fix by resolution the number of hours constituting a legal day's work for all classes of County employees and grant to the employing officer or board the power to stagger working hours;

(k) establish by resolution the method for the correction of manifest clerical or other errors or omissions in assessment rolls or returns thereof as authorized by sections 554 and 556 of the Real Property Tax Law, subject to review by the courts;

(l) fix the amount of bonds of officers and employees paid from County funds;

(m) conduct studies and investigations in furtherance of its legislative functions, and in connection therewith obtain and employ professional and technical advice, appoint citizens' committees, commissions and boards, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and require the production of books, papers and other evidence necessary or material to such studies or investigations;

(n) legalize and validate by legalizing act any act had or taken in connection with a lawful municipal purpose by a governing board or other body, officer or agency of a local municipality wholly within the County in the manner provided in the County Law;

(o) override the disapproval of legislation by the County Executive pursuant to the provisions of section 3.02 (i) of this Charter by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the total number of its members, and the same shall be duly enacted as originally submitted to him, but if the County Legislature shall fail to override such disapproval within thirty (30) days of the return to it of such legislation, the disapproval shall be final; and

(p) appoint Legislators who shall serve at the pleasure of the County Legislature, unless otherwise required by law, as those members of the Jury board authorized by law to be appointed by a County unit.

Section 2.03. Local Laws.

2.031. Adoption, Amendment and Repeal.

The County Legislature may adopt, amend and repeal local laws by not less than a majority vote of the total number of its members. Each local law shall embrace only one subject and may relate to property, affairs or government of the County, or any other subject of County concern. In the exercise of such power, and within the limitations provided by the Municipal Home Rule Law, the County may change, supersede or amend any act of the State Legislature.

2.032. Procedure. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Charter, all procedural details relating to the adoption, amendment and repeal of local laws, including the conduct of referenda in connection therewith, shall be as provided in the Administrative Code or applicable law.

2.033. Referenda. Local laws shall be subject to mandatory or permissive referenda when required by this Charter or applicable law.

2.034. Effective Date. Every local law shall become effective when filed in the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of New York, or on such later date as may be provided therein.

Section 2.04. Ordinances.

2.041. Adoption, Amendment and Repeal. The County Legislature may adopt, amend and repeal ordinances by not less than a majority vote of the total number of its members. Each ordinance shall embrace only one subject and may relate to property or any other subject of County concern not required by this Charter or applicable law to be provided by local law. Ordinances shall not be subject to referenda.

2.042. Procedure. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Charter, all procedural details relating to the adoption, amendment and repeal of ordinances shall be as provided in the Administrative Code or applicable law.

2.043. Content. Ordinances may provide:

(a) for their enforcement by legal or equitable proceedings in courts of competent jurisdiction;

(b) that violations thereof shall constitute offenses or misdemeanors; and

(c) for punishment for violation by civil penalty or by fine or imprisonment, or by any combination thereof.

Section 2.05. Resolutions.

2.051. Adoption, Amendment and Repeal. The County Legislature may adopt, amend and repeal resolutions by not less than a majority vote of the total number of its members. Each resolution shall embrace only one subject, and may relate to property or any other subject of County concern not required by this Charter or applicable law to be provided by local law or ordinance. Resolutions shall not be subject to referenda.

2.052. Procedure. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Charter, all procedural details relating to the adoption, amendment and repeal of resolutions shall be as provided in the Administrative Code or applicable law.

Section 2.06. Legalizing Acts.

2.061. Adoption, Amendment and Repeal. The County Legislature may adopt, amend and repeal legalizing acts by not less than a majority vote of the total number of its members. Each legalizing act shall embrace only one subject.

2.062. Procedure. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Charter, all procedural details relating to the adoption, amendment and repeal of legalizing acts shall be as provided in the Administrative Code or applicable law.

Section 2.07. Confirmation of Appointments. Confirmation of appointments, where required by this Charter, shall be by affirmative roll call of the majority of the voting members of the County Legislature, except that if the County Legislature shall fail to take action within sixty (60) days after the filing of written notification of appointment with the Clerk of the County Legislature, such appointment shall be deemed approved.²⁷

Section 2.08. Committees, Commissions and Boards. Members of all citizens' committees, commissions and boards appointed pursuant to section 2.02 (m) of this Charter shall serve at the pleasure of the County Legislature. They shall serve without compensation other than for actual and necessary expenses within appropriations made therefor, unless otherwise provided by resolution of the County Legislature. The Chairman of the County Legislature shall be a member ex officio of all such committees, commissions and boards.

Section 2.09. Organizational Meeting; Notice. The organizational meeting of the County Legislature shall be conducted on or before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January at the time and place designated in a written notice to be given each legislator by the Clerk of the County Legislature not later than five (5) days prior to such meeting. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Clerk of the County Legislature, or his inability or failure to act in accordance with the provisions of this section, notice shall be given by the County Clerk.

Section 2.10. Monthly and Special Meetings; Notice. The County Legislature shall fix by rule the time and place of its regular meetings, which shall be conducted at least once each calendar month. No prior notice of such meetings shall be required. Special meetings may be conducted at such times and places and upon such conditions and notice to all members as the County Legislature by rule may provide.

Section 2.11. Chairman of the County Legislature; Election; Vacancy. A Chairman of the County Legislature shall be elected from the membership of the County Legislature at its organizational meeting, or at an adjourned meeting thereof, who shall serve as Chairman for the balance of the calendar year. In the event of vacancy, the County Legislature shall fill the office of Chairman in the manner provided by its rules. Should the County Legislature fail to select a Chairman within thirty (30) days after that office shall become vacant for any reason, however, the County Executive shall appoint a member of the County Legislature to serve as its Chairman for the balance of the calendar year, as provided in section 3.02 (j) of this Charter.

Section 2.12. Clerk of the County Legislature; Appointment; Qualifications; Vacancy; Deputies and Employees. A Clerk of the County Legislature shall be appointed by the County Legislature at its organizational meeting, or at an adjourned meeting thereof, in the manner provided by its rules. The Clerk shall be and remain an elector of the County, and he shall serve at the pleasure of the County Legislature and until his successor shall be appointed and shall qualify. A vacancy in the office of Clerk shall be filled by the County Legislature. The County Legislature may appoint such Deputy Clerks and employees as it may require.

Section 2.13. Membership Vacancy; Selection of Interim Successor; Election of Successor; Special Election. A Vacancy in the membership of the County Legislature shall be filled during the first thirty (30) days after its occurrence as follows:

(a) in a district lying wholly within the boundaries of one town or city, by a majority vote of the whole board or council governing said town or city;

(b) in a district lying within the boundaries of two or more towns or cities or parts thereof, by a majority weighted vote of all the boards or councils governing said towns or cities assembled collectively for the purpose of filling such vacancy. Such weighting shall be based upon the ratio of population of each town in such district, and divided equally among the members of each separate board or council.

The person selected to fill such vacancy shall take and file his oath of office pursuant to law, and shall be entitled to take his seat on the County Legislature at its next meeting. He shall serve until the first day of January next following the general election at which such vacancy may be filled, at which general election such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term, if any.

In the event such vacancy is not filled as herein above provided during the first thirty (30) days after its occurrence, a special election shall be held in the district wherein such vacancy shall have occurred. The person elected at such special election shall take and file his oath of office pursuant to law, and shall be entitled to take his seat on the County Legislature at its next meeting and shall serve for the unexpired term.

Section 2.14. Counsel to the Legislature.¹

There shall be a counsel to the Legislature who shall be appointed by the Chairman of the Legislature subject to the confirmation of the County Legislature. At the time of his appointment, and throughout his term of office, the Counsel to the Legislature shall be and remain duly licensed and entitled to practice law in the State of New York. He shall be appointed on the basis of his legal experience and other qualifications for the responsibilities of his office. He shall be directly responsible to, and serve at the pleasure of, the County Legislature.

(a) Powers and Duties. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Charter, the Counsel to the Legislature shall, with respect to matters of the County Legislature:

1. render legal advice to the County Legislature;
2. prepare all local laws, ordinances, resolutions, legalizing acts or other legislation upon request of a member of the County Legislature, together with notices and other documents in connection therewith;
3. attend all regular and special meetings of the Dutchess County Legislature. Be available to attend all committee meetings of the Legislature;
4. prepare all necessary memoranda and opinions surrounding the various issues addressed by the legislation of this County;
5. be prepared at all times to give legal counsel to the Legislators and the various officers of the Legislature surrounding their respective functions;
6. perform such other related and nonconflicting duties as may be required by the County Legislature.

(b) Deputies and Assistants. Legal Counsel to the Legislature shall have the power to appoint such Deputy and Assistants and employees of his department as shall be authorized by the County Legislature. At the time of their appointment, and throughout their terms of office, all Deputies and Assistants shall be and remain duly licensed and entitled to practice law in the State of New York. All Deputies and Assistants and employees of the department shall be directly responsible to, and serve at the pleasure of the Counsel to the Legislature, except as otherwise provided by this Charter, the Administrative Code or applicable law.

(c) Acting Legal Counsel to the Legislature. The Legal Counsel to the Legislature, subject to approval by the Legislature, shall designate in writing, and in order of succession, the Deputy and Assistant Counsel who shall be Acting Legal Counsel in the event of his absence from the County or inability to perform and exercise the powers and duties of his office. Such designation shall be filed with the County Clerk and the Clerk of the Legislature and may be revoked at any time by the Legal Counsel to the Legislature filing a new written designation and order of succession. The Acting Legal Counsel shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the Legal Counsel to the Legislature.

(d) Term of Appointment. The Counsel to the Legislature shall serve for a fixed term of appointment of five (5) years.

(e) Vacancies in the Office of Counsel to the Legislature. A vacancy in the Office of Counsel to the Legislature which occurs during the term of the Counsel to the Legislature shall be filled for the balance of that term by the Chairman of the Legislature. The appointee to the position shall be subject to confirmation by the Legislature.

- 3.07 Vacancy in the Office of County Executive.^{41, 52}

Section 3.01. County Executive; Election; Term; Qualifications; Compensation.

There shall be a County Executive, who shall be elected in an odd numbered year from the County at large for a term of four years beginning with the first day of January next following his election. He shall be directly responsible to all the people of the County. At the time of his nomination and election, and throughout his term of office, he shall be and remain a qualified elector of the County. He shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the County Legislature, but in no event shall his compensation be diminished during a term for which he shall have been elected.

Section 3.02. Powers and Duties. The County Executive shall be the chief executive officer of the County. Except as may otherwise be provided herein, he shall have and exercise all the executive powers and duties now or hereafter conferred or imposed by law or this Charter upon a county executive officer or the executive branch of a county, and all powers and duties necessarily implied or incidental thereto.

Among such powers and duties, but not by way of limitation, he shall:

(a) appoint, except as otherwise provided in this Charter, all department heads and appointive executive officers of the County government, subject to confirmation by the County Legislature;

(b) supervise, direct and control the administration of all departments;

(c) appoint such assistants, officers and employees of his office as may be authorized by the County Legislature;

(d) supervise and direct the internal structure and organization of every unit of the executive branch of the County government, including, except as otherwise provided in this Charter or applicable law, the appointment and dismissal of employees;

(e) appoint, supervise and terminate, subject to the provisions of section 3.03 of this Charter and except as otherwise herein provided, all executive committees, commissions and boards, of which he shall be an ex officio member, to assist him in the exercise of his executive functions and in the planning, formulation and administration of executive policies and programs;

(f) be the chief budgetary officer of the County;

(g) designate one or more official depositories within the County for the deposit and withdrawal of County funds;

(h) approve or disapprove the sufficiency of sureties on official bonds and undertakings;

(i) approve or disapprove in writing every proposed local law; ordinance; legalizing act; or resolution, except those provided in section 2.02 (d) herein, provided that if the

County Executive shall fail to return such legislation to the Clerk of the County Legislature, with reasons in writing, within ten (10) days after submission to the County Executive, or thirty (30) days in the case of a local law, such legislation shall be deemed approved and duly enacted;

(j) appoint a member of the County Legislature to serve as its Chairman for the balance of the calendar year should the County Legislature fail to select a Chairman from among its members within thirty (30) days after that office shall become vacant for any reason;

(k) determine and fix real property equalization rates for each of the County tax districts for County purposes, and file copies of such rates in writing with the Clerk of the County Legislature and State Board of Equalization and Assessment on or before the first day of October of each year;

(l) file with the County Legislature annually on or before the first day of February of each year a written report of the finances of the County and the activities of the executive branch of the County government in such detail and in such manner as he may deem appropriate or as the County Legislature may by resolution specify, and make other reports at such times and in such manner as the County Legislature may by resolution require;

(m) possess all powers and duties with respect to weights and measures;

(n) make purchases and sales of all materials, supplies and equipment, and contract for the rental and servicing of equipment for the County, subject to the provisions of the General Municipal Law;

(o) make, sign and implement all contracts on behalf of the County within authorized appropriations; and

(p) supervise the operations of the County's data processing and machine tabulating equipment.

Section 3.03. Committees, Commissions and Boards. Members of all committees, commissions and boards appointed pursuant to Section 3.02 (e) of this Charter shall serve at the pleasure of the County Executive. They shall serve without compensation other than for actual and necessary expenses within appropriations made therefor, unless otherwise provided by resolution of the County Legislature.

Section 3.04. Appointments by County Executive. Every appointment by the County Executive, whether or not subject to confirmation by the County Legislature, shall be in writing and filed with the County Clerk and the Clerk of the County Legislature within five (5) days of such appointment. Each appointee shall enter upon the duties of his office immediately upon such filing, except that where confirmation by the County Legislature is required pursuant to this Charter, each such appointee shall assume the duties of his office immediately upon such confirmation. The County Executive may appoint a qualified person to serve temporarily as an acting department head for a period not exceeding forty (40) days in any calendar year unless extended by resolution of the County Legislature.

Section 3.05. Deputy County Executive(S); How Designated; Powers And Duties. The County Executive shall have the power to appoint such Deputy County Executive(s) as may be deemed proper, in writing, each subject to confirmation by the County Legislature. A Deputy County Executive shall be directly responsible to, and serve at the pleasure of, the County Executive. A Deputy County Executive, when authorized by the County Executive, shall have all of the powers and perform all of the duties of the County Executive. A Deputy County Executive shall also have such authority as delegated by the County Executive consistent with this Charter. After confirmation of a Deputy County Executive(s) by the Legislature, such appointment(s) shall be filed with the County Clerk and the Clerk of the County Legislature.^{40, 52}

Section 3.05-A. Acting County Executive; How Designated; Powers and Duties. The County Executive shall designate in writing, and in order of succession, the Department Heads and/or Deputy County Executive(s) who shall be Acting County Executive in the event the County Executive is either absent from the County or unable to perform and exercise the powers and duties of the Office of County Executive. The Acting County Executive shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the County Executive. The designation and order of succession of Acting County Executive shall be filed with the County Clerk and the Clerk of the County Legislature and may be revoked at any time by the County Executive filing a new written designation and order of succession. In the absence of such written designation and order of succession, and in the event an Acting County Executive need be appointed as set forth herein, the County Legislature shall appoint a department head or a Deputy County Executive as Acting County Executive.^{40, 52}

Section 3.06. Removal of County Executive. The County Executive may be removed from office only in the manner provided in the Public Officers Law.

Section 3.07. Vacancy in the Office of County Executive. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the County Executive as described in Section 30 of the Public Officers Law, the Acting County Executive shall succeed to the office of County Executive, and shall have all the powers and perform all of the duties of the County Executive. The Acting County Executive shall be designated according to the procedure outlined in Section 3.05-A. He/She shall hold the office of County Executive until the commencement of the calendar year next following the first annual election held not less than sixty (60) days after the occurrence of such vacancy, at which annual election a County Executive shall be elected from the County at large for the balance of the unexpired term.^{41, 52}

- 7.11. Acting Director of Community Services

Section 7.01. County Health District; Department of Behavioral & Community Health; Commissioner; Appointment; Qualifications; Term. The County of Dutchess shall be a health district. There shall be a Department of Behavioral & Community Health under the direction of a Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health, who shall be appointed by the County Executive, subject to confirmation by the County Legislature. At the time of his or her appointment, and throughout his or her term of office, the Commissioner shall be and remain duly licensed and entitled to practice medicine in the State of New York and shall have such other qualifications as may be required by law. He or she shall be appointed on the basis of his or her professional experience and other qualifications for the responsibilities of his or her office. He or she shall be directly responsible to and, unless otherwise required by law, serve at the pleasure of the County Executive.

Section 7.02. Powers and Duties. The Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health shall be the chief administrative officer of the department. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter he or she shall have all the powers and perform all the duties conferred or imposed by law upon a county commissioner of health, and shall perform such other and related duties required by the County Executive or County Legislature.

Section 7.03. Board of Health; Appointment; Powers and Duties. There shall be within the department a Board of Health whose members shall be appointed by the County Legislature in the manner and for the term provided in the Public Health Law. The Board of Health, subject to the provisions of the Public Health Law and the State Sanitary Code, shall have the power to formulate, adopt, promulgate, amend or repeal such rules and regulations as may affect public health within the County; to formulate, adopt, promulgate, amend or repeal a County Sanitary Code; to consider any matters that may come to its attention relating to the preservation and improvement of public health within the County, and advise the Commissioner thereon, either at his or her request or upon its own initiative, and from time to time to make recommendations to the Commissioner thereon.

Section 7.04. Deputy Commissioners and Staff. The Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health shall have the power to appoint such Deputy Commissioners, assistants and employees of his or her department as shall be authorized by the County Legislature. At the times of their appointment, and throughout their terms of office, all Deputy Commissioners of Behavioral & Community Health, except for the Deputy Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health for Mental Hygiene, if any, shall be and remain duly licensed and entitled to practice medicine in the State of New York, and shall have such other qualifications as may be required by law. All Deputy Commissioners, assistants and employees of the department shall be directly responsible to, and serve at the pleasure of the Commissioner, except as otherwise provided by this Charter, the Administrative Code or applicable law.

Section 7.05. Acting Commissioner. The Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health, subject to approval by the County Executive, shall designate in writing, and in order of succession, the Deputy Commissioners and assistants who shall be Acting Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health in the event of his or her absence from the County or inability to perform and exercise the powers and duties of his or her office. In the absence of a Deputy Commissioner who is duly licensed and entitled to practice medicine in the State of New York, the Acting Commissioner shall be the Medical Examiner. Such designation shall be filed with the County Clerk and the Clerk of the County Legislature and may be revoked at any time by the Commissioner filing a new written designation and order of succession. The Acting Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the Commissioner.

Section 7.06. Director of Weights and Measures III. Within the Department of Behavioral & Community Health, there shall be a Director of Weights and Measures III who shall have the powers and duties of a county director of weights and measures as described in Article 16 of the New York State Agriculture and Markets Law. The Director shall also perform such other and related duties as required by the Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health provided such additional powers and duties deal primarily with services designed to aid and protect the consumer and are not inconsistent with the provisions of Article 16 of the New York State Agricultural and Markets Law.³²

Section 7.07. Veterans Services. The Director of Veterans Services shall:

1. Inform military and naval authorities of the United States and assist members of the armed forces and veterans, who are residents of this county, and their families, in relation to:

- a. matters pertaining to educational training and retraining services and facilities,
- b. health, medical and rehabilitation services and facilities,
- c. provisions of federal, state and local laws and regulations affording special rights and privileges to members of the armed forces and veterans and their families,
- d. employment and re-employment services,
- e. other matters of similar, related or appropriate nature,
- f. assist families of members of the reserve components of the armed forces and organized militia ordered into active duty to ensure that they are made aware of and receiving all appropriate support available to them and are placed in contact with the agencies responsible for such support, including but not limited to, the division of military and naval affairs and other state agencies responsible for providing such support,
- g. perform such other duties as may be assigned by the state director of veterans' affairs and,
- h. such other services as may from time to time be allowed or deleted by state statute, rule or regulation.

2. The Director of Veterans Services shall also hold the title of the County Director of Veterans' Service Agency as set forth in Article 17 of the New York State Executive Law and he/she shall be a veteran.

3. The Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health in consultation with the Director of Veterans Services may from time to time add or delete such programs as allowed by statute, rule or regulation.⁴⁴

Section 7.08. Division of Mental Hygiene; Director of Community Services; Appointment; Qualifications; Term. There shall be a Division of Mental Hygiene under the direction of such qualified personnel as the Commissioner may appoint. There shall be within the division a designated Director of Community Services who shall be appointed by the Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health. At the time of his or her appointment, and throughout his or her term of office, he or she shall possess the qualifications prescribed by the Mental Hygiene Law and the New York State Commissioner of Mental Hygiene, and he or she shall be appointed on the basis of his or her professional experience and other qualifications for the responsibilities of his or her office. He or she shall be directly responsible to, and serve at the pleasure of, the Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health.

Section 7.09. Powers and Duties. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Charter, he or she shall have all the powers and perform all the duties conferred or imposed by law upon a county director of community services.

Section 7.10. Mental Hygiene Board; Powers and Duties; Vacancies. There shall be within the Department of Behavioral & Community Health a Mental Hygiene Board which shall be advisory to the Division of Mental Hygiene. Its composition, duties and responsibilities shall be as set forth in the Dutchess County Administrative Code and Mental Hygiene Law.

Section 7.11. Acting Director of Community Services. The Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health, subject to the approval of the County Executive, shall designate in writing, and in order of succession, the qualified employees who shall be Acting Director of Community Services in the event of the Director of Community Services' absence from the County or inability to perform and exercise the powers and duties of his or her office. Such designation shall be filed with the County Clerk and the Clerk of the County Legislature and may be revoked at any time by the Commissioner of Behavioral & Community Health filing a new written designation and order of succession. The Acting Director of Community Services shall have all the powers and perform all of the duties of the Director of Community Services.
