VACANCY: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used, when appropriate, to fill vacancies as they occur in all units under the jurisdiction of the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must meet the following requirements on or before March 17, 2018:

Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma AND:

- EITHER: (A) Two (2) years of responsible experience in planning or directing recreation activities;
OR: (B) Two (2) years of study at a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with major work in physical education or recreation;
OR: (C) An equivalent combination of education, training and experience between the limits of (A) and (B) above.

NOTE: Unless otherwise specified, part-time experience will be pro-rated towards meeting the full-time experience requirements.

DUTIES: This is an administrative position having responsibility for planning and directing the recreation program for a county, town and/or village.

EXAMPLES OF WORK (Illustrative Only): Promotes the organization of recreation activities; confers with policy making body on matters of size, scope and financing of recreation program; conducts training sessions for recreation specialists, attendants and lifeguards; makes plans for improving existing recreation areas; conducts public relations activities by delivering addresses and issuing press reports on the recreation program; purchases supplies and materials; maintains discipline in swimming areas and on playgrounds; prepares reports on the operations of the program; does related work as required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: Written test will cover knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in such areas as:

- 1. Principles and practices of leisure recreation - These questions test for a knowledge of the basic concepts and common practices employed in the planning and implementation of leisure-time recreation programs in athletics, social activities, and avocational interests. Questions may cover such areas as program/activity planning for the major user groups, program/activity planning for people with special needs; operation of recreation areas, recreation center buildings, and specialized recreation facilities (pools, tennis courts, etc.); and scheduling of activities.
- 2. Preparing written material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.
- 3. Recreation administration - These questions test for knowledge and application of the principles and practices of recreation administration as they relate to structuring and maintaining a recreation program. Questions may cover such topics as planning (forecasting, identification of objectives, etc.); organizing (identification and grouping of work tasks, definition and delegation of responsibility and authority, establishment of relationships, etc.); control (development and implementation of standards, evaluation techniques, etc.); and policy formulation (information systems, evaluation of alternatives, etc.).
- 4. Working with people to facilitate recreation and/or leisure activities - These questions will test for the knowledge and abilities necessary to work with individuals of all backgrounds in the context of providing recreation and leisure activities. Questions may cover such areas as: human behavior and development, handling difficult situations, engaging and motivating participants, building rapport with participants, working with volunteers, and planning appropriate activities for participant group.
- 5. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.
