

DUTCHESS COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES ANNOUNCES A PROMOTION EXAMINATION FOR:

Title: Town Police Chief (Town of Poughkeepsie) (Type C)

Number: 70493

Salary: $130,000-140,000 – Town of Poughkeepsie

Date of Examination: 03/02/2019

Applications Accepted Until: 01/18/2019

Applications postmarked 01/18/2019 will be accepted.

Applications accepted until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Administration of an exam does not imply a vacancy exists.

A $25.00 fee and examination application is required for each separately numbered examination: Application processing fee is payable by check, money order or credit card. Cash is NOT accepted. Check or money order must be made payable to “Commissioner of Finance” with the examination number and title indicated on the check or money order. The fee may be waived for candidates meeting certain criteria. See application for more details regarding fee waiver. Read the announcement carefully; the application processing fee will NOT be refunded to disapproved applicants.

VACANCY: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used, when appropriate, to fill vacancies as they occur in the Town of Poughkeepsie Police Department.

QUALIFYING EXPERIENCE: Candidates must possess two (2) years of permanent competitive class status as a Police Captain or seven (7) years of permanent competitive class status as a Police Lieutenant in the Town of Poughkeepsie Police Department immediately preceding March 2, 2019.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR APPOINTMENT TO THE POSITION:

1. Citizenship: United States citizenship is required.
2. Driver's License: Possession of a valid New York State driver's license is required. (Applications will be accepted from candidates eligible for such license.)
3. Candidates must have been appointed as a Police Officer from an eligible list established according to merit and fitness as provided by Section 6 of Article five of the Constitution of the State of New York or must have previously served as a member of the New York State Police. It will be necessary for you to provide documentation showing you meet this requirement unless you are currently employed or have previously been employed as a Police Officer in an agency under the jurisdiction of the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources.

DUTIES: This is an important administrative position involving responsibility for planning and directing all police functions in a municipal police department. EXAMPLES OF WORK (Illustrative Only): Issues working orders for the department; maintains a function-organized department; schedules officers shifts; reviews activities and reports of officers; maintains an adequate training program in police methods and procedures for recruits and regular officers; supervises the activities of the police force at all serious fires; cooperates with other departments, the State Police Department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the public; directs the investigation of major criminal offenses; develops policies and procedures and annual budget for the department; determines police staffing patterns and equipment needs for known or anticipated future operations; keeps himself and the department informed of developments in police work by reading, conferring and attending meetings; recommends the purchase of necessary supplies and equipment; delivers talks on safety and other law enforcement problems; does related work as required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: Written test will cover knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in such areas as:

1. Knowledge of law enforcement methods, practices and procedures - These questions test for knowledge of accepted police methods and practices and/or their application to situations in the police field. The questions are a sampling of the various knowledge that police personnel may be required to possess in the course of their day-to-day, work-related activities. Areas covered include investigation procedures, patrol techniques, police-community relations, courtroom procedures, personnel practices, policy making and budgeting procedures.
2. Knowledge of New York State laws - These questions test the candidates' knowledge of the laws in effect on January 1, 2019. This portion of the test is a sampling of the various sections of the law that police personnel may encounter in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities. Laws covered may include the Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Vehicle and Traffic Law, Family Court Act, and other laws relevant to law enforcement in New York State.
3. Police Administrative Supervision and Administration - These questions test for the knowledge of managerial functions involved in directing the operations of a B or C level police department as well as the knowledge of the principles and practices involved in supervising a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. These questions cover such areas as: developing objectives and formulating policies; forecasting and planning; organizing and coordinating; informing and instructing; guiding and leading; decision-making and problem solving; communicating effectively; staffing and staff development; time management; assigning work and evaluating performance; handling conflict and grievances; and budgeting.
4. Job simulation exercises in police administration and command - Against the background of knowledge required for the position, this will include two job simulation exercises that cover such areas as: human resources management, management of operations, problem-solving, decision-making under pressure, public relations, and police procedure.
5. Understanding and interpreting written material - These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will ask questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.
6. Preparing written material in a police setting - These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports that police personnel write. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. They consist of restatements of information given in note form. You must choose the best version from each set of four choices. Other questions test for the ability to organize paragraphs. They consist of paragraphs with their sentences out of order. For each of the paragraphs you must choose, from four suggestions, the best order of the sentences.

P. E. R. C. Statement - The final rating key for this examination will be established by the State Civil Service Commission prior to the testing date, upon recommendation of a committee of police experts who will review all the questions for appropriateness and accuracy. There will be no review of the questions by candidates. The committee was selected with the assistance and endorsement of the Police Conference of New York, Inc., the New York State Association of PBAs, Inc., and the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc.

A Guide for the Written Test for Police Chief/Assistant Chief is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the municipal civil service office conducting this examination using the contact information found elsewhere on this announcement.

The use of calculators is PROHIBITED for this exam.

ADMISSION TO EXAMINATION: Do not interpret a notice to appear for, or actual participation in the examination to mean that you have been found to meet fully the announced requirements. Depending on the time available before an examination, applicants may be admitted to the examination on the basis of statements made on the application or conditionally, without prior review of the application. Such statements may not be reviewed and/or verified until after the examination is held. At that time, those candidates not meeting the requirements are disqualified. Candidates who are subsequently disqualified after taking the test will NOT be notified of their score. If you do not receive a notice three days prior to the date of examination informing you whether or not you are to be admitted to the examination, call the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources immediately at 845-486-2169.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Notify this office immediately of any change of address. The appropriate change of address form is available on the website, in the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources, and will be available at the examination center.

RESIDENCE PREFERENCE: Pursuant to Section 23.4a of Civil Service Law, preference in appointment from open-competitive lists may be given to candidates who have been residents in a locality or school district in which appointment is to be made for at least 30 days prior to certification of the eligible list. For appointment in some jurisdictions you may be required to become a resident thereof in accordance with law or resolution.

MULTIPLE EXAMINATIONS: If you have applied for any other Civil Service examinations for employment with New York State or any other local government jurisdiction, you must make arrangements to take all the examinations at one test site no later than two weeks before the test date. Call 845-486-2169 for further information regarding multiple examinations on the same date.

NOTE: In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

APPLICATIONS: May be obtained online at www.dutchessny.gov, by sending a legal-sized, self-addressed, stamped envelope or visiting the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources, 22 Market Street, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601 (9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday).
